

Country Pursuits Mix

Fact Sheet

What are they?

A variety of countryside activities to form the basis of, or enhance any event.

The perfect break from the bustle of city-life, a Country Pursuits day gives your guests the opportunity to relax and sample traditional, along with more 'unusual' rural pastimes - from clay pigeon shooting and archery to ferret or pig racing!

How do they work?

Our expert instructors will introduce guests to each pursuit, and after a brief demonstration it will be the guests' turn to have a go.

Create the ideal country experience. The activity range is vast, allowing you to pick and mix pursuits according to your audience and requirements:

The Pursuits

Air Rifles

Hone shooting abilities with some air-rifle target practice. Accuracy and composure will help guests to hit pop-up targets. Throw in some action by having the targets explode on impact!

Antiques Dating

A useful skill for car boot sales nationwide. Learn how to match the antiques to their description, age and value.

Axe Throwing

Try your hand at this Viking-inspired activity: The conquering Scandinavians enjoyed throwing axes, now you can too – with some tuition you'll be hurling the bladed tools so they hit the target perfectly.

Carriage Driving

Experience the romanticism of the horse and carriage combination. After instruction in how to handle a horse from the seat of a carriage, a special 'driving test' can be undertaken to test your technique and earn a 'licence'.

Clay Shooting Stands

Grab your gun, aim well and knock the clays from the sky. We provide helpful, friendly advice and allow as much safe shooting time as possible. Each stand includes an automatic trap, unlimited cartridges and a variety of clays:

- Rabbit and Pigeon Clays – the first runs along the ground, the second is up high
- Crossing Woodcock - standard clay crossing left to right
- Snipe - varying "ball trap" can be used to give an unpredictable target
- Partridge - incoming clay, simulating driven clay
- Springing Teal - clay which flies up vertically
- Fleeing Pheasant - clay which flies away from the gun

Clay Snooker

Differing from usual clay pigeon stands, the clays are different colours and launched from varying directions. Choose your target clays carefully, as each is worth a different amount of points. Luckily there will be no chance to pot the white...

Fact Sheet

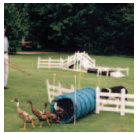

Crossbows

Mechanised archery. Armed with Barnet Wildcat crossbows and full instruction, guests will direct their arrows towards the bullseye.

Donkey Derby

A lively donkey-powered chariot race. Steer and cheer your mighty steed to victory! Or maybe a carrot bribe is in order?

Duck Herding

Duck Herding is an ancient art - it's true! Following a short introduction, teams get the chance to steer their fowl friends around a course with the aid of a dog. Create the right rapport with your dog and master the correct shepherd terminology to send the ducks efficiently through a series of fences, slides and tunnels.

Falconry

A selection of winged wonders. An expert falconer introduces various birds and their abilities. The activity culminates with guest participation during a falconry demonstration – have an Owl or a Harris Hawk glide through the air and settle on your fist!

Ferret Roulette

Take a baffling piece of apparatus comprising of many tubes, add a charming member of the weasel family, and you have ferret roulette. Drop the little blighter into the central chamber and make a bet on which tube he will pop his head out of.

Fishing

Novices and expert anglers alike, our informal experienced instructors can accommodate all levels of fishing. Celebrity instructors and experts are available on request.

Fly Casting

Aside from the deck chair, it's one of the most important features of fishing. Learn how to cast skilfully from an expert tutor, then compete with team mates and attempt to land your fly in circular targets.

Fly Tying

A chance to pick up new fishing skills. An Instructor will teach guests the art of tying a fly in different ways, and when to use each. Knowledge is power, so now you can become a more effective angler.

Gun Dog Trials

Meet and take control of your very own Gun Dog. After some instruction, you and your canine contestant tackle an assault course brimming with tunnels, slaloms and walls. If your connection and communication with the Gun Dog is effective, you could be guiding yourselves to a record time!

Horse Riding

Full tuition on a classic country pursuit. Take the reigns of these noble animals and take on the trot, canter or gallop. For even more equestrian excitement, try out jumping!

Landscape Painting

A professional artist will show you the basics of landscape painting, including mixing colours, the best brush techniques and how to scale.

Laser Clays

Ideal for people who are slightly nervous about using a real gun, or where a venue doesn't hold a licence for clay pigeon shooting – this has all the fun of clay-shooting without the live ammunition. Specially adapted clays are launched from a trap as five guests fire at the same time. Scores are recorded on an electronic scoreboard.

Fact Sheet

Laser Helicopter Shooting

Five laser guns, one low flying mini helicopter. An unusual and visually exciting challenge.

Lawn Mower Racing

The sit-down ones of course! Jump onto your grass guzzling gadget and get your engine revving. It is then a 'high speed' lawn experience where the first set of blades across the finish line will win.

Living off the Land

Shun high street restaurants and cafes and 'go back to nature'. This activity will teach guests how to grow their own food, with produce that can be found naturally or grown in a garden or window box. There's a knack to cooking it all too – which we'll also demonstrate!

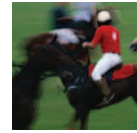

Mead Making

Revisit the birth of alcohol as guests learn how to make the world's first fermented beverage. After a short history of the drink and an explanation of the brewing process, you have the opportunity to make your own brew.

Pig Racing

Yep. This activity is exactly as it sounds. Watch the farmyard fauna line up under starters orders and then tear away down a race track. Wager with team mates on which pig will win the race, though I wouldn't bet on the porky one on the left myself...

Polo

A royal favourite. Instructors will help guests to master riding a pony, handle a polo stick, and then combine the two skills...

Pottery

A workshop teaching guests the art of spinning pots on a clay wheel. After their custom made crockery is complete, guests take on the decoration, firing and glazing aspects of pottery.

Sheep Dog Trials

Become a traditional shepherd and manipulate the location of your sheep. Following a short session of instructions and demonstrations, guests can command a sheepdog to round up the sheep and coax them into a pen. Teams compete against the clock, with odds-on comical consequences.

Traditional Archery

Whether you're left or right handed, we provide the latest composite bows. Take some expert tuition from our instructor, polish your technique and send your pointed projectiles to the centre of the target.
